²⁶ Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over the livestock and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth."²⁷ So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

FOUNDATIONS BIBLE CONFERENCE

† THE DOCTRINE OF MAN †
MAN CREATED IN THE IMAGE OF GOD

Saturday, March 11, 2017

What is the Foundations Bible Conference?

The Foundations Bible Conference is an annual conference sponsored by Oakwood Baptist Church to teach biblical truths for the equipping of believers to live for the Glory of God.

The 2017 Foundations Bible Conference will be hosted by Oakwood Baptist Church and will concentrate the implication of man being created in the image of God. This foundational doctrine found in Genesis Chapters 1 & 2 has broad implications for addressing the culture we find ourselves in. It covers the value of human life and such things as euthanasia, racism and prejudices, the definition of marriage and even human sexuality. We pray that as we look at this important doctrine we will be better prepared to live out our faith in the world that we find ourselves in.

For if religion requires me to love all persons, as God's creatures, that belong to Him, that bear His image, enjoy His protection, and make parts of His family and household; if these are the great and necessary reasons why I should live in love and friendship with any one man in the world; they are the same great and necessary reasons why I should live in love and friendship with every man in the world; and, consequently, I offend against all these reasons, and break through all these ties and obligations, whenever I want love towards any one man. The sin, therefore, of hating, or despising any one man, is like the sin of hating all God's creation; and the necessity of loving any one man, is the same necessity of loving every man in the world
 -- William Law --

Although we see a great diversity among men, yet we must not forget that God hath made us all in His own image and likeness, and that we are the workmanship of His hand; therefore He extends His goodness to those who are afar off, of which we have had sufficient proof: for when He drew us unto Him, were we not His enemies?

-- John Calvin--

How much God hath bestowed upon you, in the endowments of your nature. God hath made you rational, intelligent creatures, hath endowed you with noble powers, those endowments wherein the natural image of God consists. You are vastly exalted in your nature above other kinds of creatures here below.

-- Jonathan Edwards--

⁸ but no human being can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison. ⁹ With it we bless our Lord and Father, and with it we curse people who are made in the likeness of God. ¹⁰ From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things ought not to be so.
